Graves leads The Graduates

Marge Graves has been named president of The Graduates, a social club celebrating its 16th year that is an outgrowth of the Santa Barbara Newcomers Club. Mrs. Graves and husband Don moved from Iowa 18 years ago. She first served on the Newcomers board of directors as event coordinator, then treasurer and president. Over the past several years, she has served in several roles with The Graduates, including events coordinator. Other officers include Ronnie Morris, past president; Berkeley Meigs, secretary; Florence Michel, treasurer; Bob Lilley, web coordinator; Denise Stevens, events and activities chair; Ellena Lilley, events activity support and board communications; Darlene Amundsen, membership coordinator; and Roger Hoyt, publicity and historian.
